

WOMAN SUFFERED TEN YEARS

From Nervousness Caused by Female Ills—Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Auburn, N. Y. — "I suffered from nervousness for ten years, and had such organic pains that sometimes I would lie in bed four days at a time, could not eat or sleep and did not want anyone to talk to me or bother me at all. Sometimes I would suffer for seven hours at a time. Different doctors did the best they could for me until four months ago I began giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and now I am in good health." — Mrs. WILLIAM H. GILL, 15 Pleasant Street, Auburn, New York.

"Doctor's Daughter Took It."
St. Cloud, Minn. — "I was so run down by overwork and worry that I could not stand it to have my children talk aloud or walk heavy on the floor. One of my friends said, 'Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for I know a doctor's daughter here in town who takes it and she would not take it if it were not good.'"

"I sent for the Compound at once and kept on taking it until I was all right." — Mrs. BERTHA M. QUICKSTADT, 727 5th Avenue, S., St. Cloud, Minn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be relied upon as the most efficient remedy for female ills. Why don't you try it?

THE PROCESSION OF THE STATES

Magnificent Parade and Review of States and Floats Tomorrow Night, Final Details of Which Have Been Arranged

A more imposing procession than ever before moved in Arizona, will be reviewed tomorrow evening at the corner of Center and Washington streets by Vice-president Marshall, Governor Hunt, Governor McDonald of New Mexico, Senator Mark A. Smith and Representative Carl Hayden. The procession will be officially known as the "All States Parade." All the details of the parade were arranged yesterday and everything is in readiness for the movement at 7:30 tomorrow night.

In the arrangement of the program and plan of parade, Grand Marshal Heard was greatly aided by the military experience of Adjutant General C. W. Harris and Major E. P. Grinstead. The parade and order of march will be as follows:

Platoon of mounted police.
Grand Marshal, Dwight B. Heard and aids.

First Division.
Marshal—Maj. E. P. Grinstead.
Troop U. S. 5th Cavalry.
First Infantry band.
Battalion First Arizona Infantry.
Battalion university cadets.
Company Normal cadets.
Company, Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias.

Indian school band.
Indian school cadets.

Second Division.
Marshal—Frank DeSousa.
Industrial school band.
State officials.
County officials.
City officials.

Third Division.
Marshal—A. D. Leyhe.
Columet & Arizona Band.
State floats in alphabetical order.
County floats.
School floats.

The parade will form in the following manner: The first division will form on Fourth avenue, facing south, head on Adams street; the second division in the same manner will form on Third avenue and the third division on Second avenue. The divisions will debouch upon Adams and will proceed east on Adams, a block apart, to Fourth street. The route will then be south on Fourth to Washington street; west on Washington to Fourth avenue; north on Fourth avenue to Adams where the parade will be dismissed.

Center street, between Washington and Adams streets, will be closed during the parade. The reviewing stand will be erected on Center at Washington.

Descriptions of the state floats have not yet been given out but it is stated that they will be beautiful and unique and the school floats, it is said will be especially interesting. Every division will be accompanied by a band. It is expected that along the line of march will be gathered the largest throng ever collected in any southwestern town, outside of Los Angeles, for this will be one of the spectacular incidents of fair week.

The state societies of Phoenix and the valley are numerous and generally they have a large membership. Each is vying with the others in making a magnificent appearance in the parade so that the presentation will be one which will be remembered by those who see it.

SCORE OF P.M.'S FROM ALL OVER STATE IN SESSION

State Association Meets and Phoenix Incumbent Col. McClintock Does Some Speechifying.

About a score of Arizona postmasters gathered yesterday morning at the Phoenix postoffice for the first of a three day session of their state association.

This year the meeting was to have gone to Tucson, but was shifted back to Phoenix through the failure of the southern Arizona fair to materialize in time. The president of the association is J. Knox Corbett of Tucson, who claims to have had the longest service of all, as postmaster, a claim disputed by Perry Williams of Maricopa. Joe Prochaska, the Miami boomer, is secretary. Mrs. Marshall of Flagstaff and Miss Mahoney of Winslow are the only feminine members present.

Postmaster Campbell of Williams did not appear lonesome, though the only democrat present and even smiled, as a few of the speakers told of the near close of their labors for the public.

The principal topic discussed was

BALKE'S "The BIG CURIO on Adams Street"

For 25 years this famous store has been known as Headquarters for Navajo Blankets and Silverware, Indian Baskets and Pottery, Mexican Zerapes, Filigree Work, Drawn-work and Pottery and unique foreign curios of every description.

From One Who Knew

"Balke's in Phoenix," wrote a well-known globe trotter a few years ago, "is the most interesting 'Curio' I have ever visited. There you may see an old Russian Samovar that reminds you of the fair at Nijni-Novgorod, next is a Mexican water bottle from Vera Cruz. Here is a case of exquisite drawnwork made by the patient Convent Sisters of Guadalajara, near it a great pile of the wonderful blankets of the Navajo Indians. Here are some great Medieval Arabesques that might have come from the Berlin Museum, and in contrast the Ironwood Bow of the Apache fighter. Where else in the world will you find such a juxtaposition of unique and useful novelties? Beautiful and rare indeed are these things of Balke's. Be sure to spend an hour or two there when you visit Phoenix." (Writer's name on application.)

Our 25 years' experience in handling Indian Baskets is proven by the superiority of our stock. In Apache, Pima, Maricopa, Pai-Ute, Yolo and Yuma Baskets our stock is unequalled. We also have a few very choice Chimahuevi Apache Baskets. Many rare baskets that are not for sale that we are always pleased to show visitors. Our baskets are priced from 75c to $125 each.

With the coming of the cheap factory basket and the tin pail, the craft of basket making has been neglected by the Indians, and not one basket is made where a hundred were woven in the old days. Collectors will find much to interest them in our display.

Native Stones

Balke's stock of Native Semi-Precious Stones, both in their natural rough condition and their finished perfection, both mounted and unmounted, is really unrivalled. We buy these stones ourselves, and during our bi-annual European trip, have them cut under our personal supervision, by one of the best Austrian stone cutters. You'll be delighted with these stones. Mexican Opals, Arizona Garnets, Turquoise and Petrified Wood are specialties.

Native Arizona Ostrich Plumes

May be purchased here at reasonable prices. These feathers, the product of Salt River Valley Ostrich Ranches are of superlative quality. Come in and see them, whether you purchase or not.

NOTE: We have sold a great many Navajo Blankets to our annual Fair visitors, and we will be glad indeed to take back at the original price any blanket with which a customer may be dissatisfied. Wear makes no difference, as all genuine Navajo's grow more valuable with age. Blankets to be redeemed, must of course, be whole and uninjured by fire, etc. For years we have offered $1,000 for any blanket sold by us as a genuine Navajo that was not. Our Navajo Blankets are priced from $7.00 to $350, depending upon the quality of the weaving and the size.

GOOD ROADS MEETING AT BOARD OF TRADE

Address This Morning By Mr. Alsford of National Highways Association.

Manager of Organization Alsford of the National Highways Association, Washington, D. C., will be the principal speaker at the third annual meeting of the Arizona Good Roads Association, to be held at the board of trade this morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Alsford's mission is to endeavor to amalgamate the Arizona association with his, the parent and strongest organization in the good roads movement of the world. If his suggestion prevails at today's meeting, the Arizona association will not lose its identity, but it will be strengthened. The idea is to make the State association the Arizona Division of the National Highways Association. It is more than probable that this amalgamation will be effected and a large representation of delegates is desired at the meeting, which will not interfere with that of the devotees of the Borderland route, which is to meet at the same place at 10:30. President Norris stated yesterday that the meeting of the Arizona association will be exceedingly brief and business-like.

"The General Delivery," declared one of the most important problems of the average post office. The discussion on this was led by Postmaster McClintock, who tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, will illustrate to the visitors by direct contact with the work, his ideas on how best to handle letters.

WELFARE LEAGUE TO BE LASTING ORDER

Plans for Permanent Organization Adopted Yesterday Evening

Plans for the organization of a permanent organization were proposed and adopted at the social evening of the woman's welfare campaign, held yesterday evening in the board of trade building. It was suggested and decided that the organization should be non-partisan; that it should take an active interest in all measures which pertain to the welfare of women and men of the state, and that it should take sides in political matters only when the cause was sufficient to demand the action of the league.

To the end that the organization be completed as soon as possible, a committee on permanent organization, consisting of seven members, was named, as follows: Mrs. Virgil Parich of Phoenix, Mrs. Eugene Brady O'Neill of Phoenix, Mrs. Younger of Phoenix, Mrs. J. I. Munds of Prescott, Mrs. Hammonds of Casa Grande, Miss Telford of Phoenix and Miss Gilchrist of Phoenix.

At the suggestion of members of committee, Senator H. A. Davis and Hon. Wiley Jones were named honorary members of the committee, to act as advisers and assistants in the drawing of the permanent charter and plan. The power to call the meeting for the adoption of the definite form and for the decision of whom shall be the officers of the organization was put in the hands of Senator Davis, when the members of the committee will report on their decisions and findings and the report will be acted on.

This organization is the concrete result of the actions of the Welfare league at the fair grounds, where it has been holding forth daily, with some of the best lecturers in the state appearing before them, and where the members have been talking over and debating the best plans for a welfare campaign in this state.

GIRL WANTS HOME—A good looking, well behaved thirteen-year-old girl is anxious to secure a good home at some place other than Phoenix, where she will have the advantages of home life and kind treatment. She is an American and bright. J. W. Canning is making an effort to place the girl and desires some good family to agree to adoption.

BLAME THE HENS

"Do you furnish affidavits with your eggs, showing exactly the minute they were laid?" asked the fussy lady.

"No, ma'am, we do not," replied the market man, politely. "We tried to furnish such affidavits, but the hens positively refuse to sign 'em." — Rocky Mountain News.

CACTUS CANDY

"The Sweetheart of the Desert"

Home! What a world of meaning, becoming of the best a man can give; and so the gift of a box of Cactus Candy is a true expression of such sentiments. Send a box home—an old fashioned gift, more than 800 years old; a gift held sacred by the Aztecs, and then think of Cactus Candy. Picture the juicy meat of one, and you have the other; but add a luscious, fruity flavor, that's all its own; and you have this rare confection, so thoroughly characteristic of Arizona and her traditions.
